2020 92ND SIEC INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE IN TRIESTE - ITALY

We cordially invite you to participate in the 92nd SIEC-ISBE International Conference to be held in Trieste, Italy.

This conference will focus on the theme "Sustainability Meets Business Education". For our societies to be sustainable, it is vital for our future leaders to understand and fully integrate sustainability concerns in their thinking and acting.

Our major goal is the encouragement of wide reflections on the importance of sustainability in business education and its effects on economic, environmental and societal aspects.

The conference sessions include keynote addresses, presentations and workshops of researchers and practitioners, company visits and the chance to learn more about the history of Trieste.

Please visit SIEC-ISBE Home for up-to-date details.

Welcome to Trieste

Trieste - a city for everybody: Trieste is the polyglot capital of the northeastern Italian province of Friuli Venezia Giulia. From 1380 to World War I it was under Habsburg rule and provided a gateway to the world for central Europe. As the jewel in the Austro-Hungarian Empire's crown, the city fostered diversity, keen to attract wealthy immigrants. Even the Triestine dialect incorporates traces of German, Italian, Slovene, Greek and Croatian.

Trieste – a city of history: A combination of geographic and historical factors has made Trieste a city unique. Because of the different ethnic groups who have lived in the area, it is not a typical Italian city. Trieste flourished as part of Austria from 1382 until 1918, when it was considered one of the most prosperous Mediterranean seaports as well as a capital of literature and music. After World War II the city was an important spot in the struggle between Eastern and Western blocs. In 1954 it became officially part of the Italian Republic and capital of the autonomous region Friuli-Venezia Giulia.

Trieste – a city of research and sustainability: Though it is the smallest province of Italy, Trieste is known as a dynamic hub for research and higher education focusing on sustainable development and growth. In 2020 Trieste will be Europe's Capital of Science and will host numerous international conferences, meetings, exhibitions and workshops in the field

Conference Topic

In 2015, world leaders agreed to 17 goals for a better world by 2030. These sustainable development goals have the power to end poverty, fight inequality and address the urgency of climate change. Guided by these goals, it is now up to all of us to work together to build a better future for everyone.

Excursions and keynote speeches of the 2020 International SIEC Conference are meant to share experiences, initiatives and best practices of companies and organizations in sustainability (such as UniCredit Group, Assicurazioni Generali Group, Italian Educational Authority, Illycaffè S.p.A., Trieste Port Authority).

Cultural Program

The Province of Trieste is situated at the end of a narrow strip of land in southeast Friuli Venezia Giulia, between the Adriatic Sea and Italy's border with Slovenia. This is an extraordinary destination known for its historic treasures, artworks and middle-European character. It inspired important writers such as Rilke, Joyce, and Svevo.

The charm of the area resides in the elegant city of Trieste, where the Habsburg influence is noticeable and the inland small towns with their longstanding traditions.

If you decide for a pre- or post-conference visit to the region Friuli Venezia Giulia, please find more information on the following website:
<https://www.turismofvg.it/>

To enjoy a stay in Trieste to the full, visit the city center, undertake topical trips or different tours focusing on culture, architecture, history or literature. It is also possible to book a course on coffee, olive-oil or wine and Prosecco tasting.

Check out your favorite activity on <https://www.getyourguide.com/> or
<https://www.discover-trieste.it/Home>

If you are interested in individual sightseeing away from groups, we suggest that you contact our local partner: Mrs. Paola Alzetta, professional tour guide, who will organize exclusive tours for you.

Literature

For German speaking delegates we recommend the following books:

- Josef Wallner and Norbert Eisner:
<https://reisenotizen.ask-enrico.com/index.php/351-triestiner-geschichten>
- Veit Heinichen: He is a German novelist and wrote a series of Trieste-based crime novels.

Looking forward to meeting you in Trieste!
